WILL VISIT WEST POINT

Flying Trip Continues to Albany and Montreal-Leaves Country September 2.

Viscount Haldane, the first Lord High Chancellor to leave Great Britain on a public mission since Cardinal Wolsey's time, will be a busy man in the five United States and Canada after his arrival here on the Lusitania on Thursday night or early Friday morning. His hosts of the American Bar Association have packed so much into their entertainment plans that no private invitations can be ac

A reception committee of the American Bar Association will board the Lusitania the Cunard pler to greet the Lord Chancellor, his sister, Miss Elisabeth Haldane, and Sir Kenneth Muir-Mackenzie, Clerk of the Crown. The reception committee are Francis Rawle, chairman: Joseph H. Choate, Attorney-General James C. McReynolds, ex-Judge Alton B. Parker, ex-Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson, Francis Lynde Stetson, Charles Henry Butler and C. A. Severance of St. Paul. They will escort Lord Haldane to the Plaza Hotel, where he will have rooms while in New York. At the hotel Miss Haldane will be greeted by Mrs. Henry Rawle, a daughter-in-law of Chairman Rawle; Mrs. Hall, a daughter of Judge Parker; Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, Mrs. C. A. Lord Haldane has been described as "quite as big a man as there is in England at the pr.sent time." He was formerly Secretary of State for War and was made a peer in 1911. As Lord Chancellor he is custodian of the Great Seal, except when it is entrusted to a Lord Keeper or is in commission. He is the head of the judicial administration in England and is responsible for the appointment of Judges of the High Court, except the Chief Justice, whom the Prime Minister appoints. He also appoints county the Chief Justice, whom the Frime Minister appoints. He also appoints county court judges unless the county court district lies entirely within the Duchy of Lancaster. He advises the Crown as to nominating justices of the peace. He is president of the High Court of Justice and of the Chancery Division of the High Court, and is ex officio member and presidence of the Court of Appeals. ing officer of the Court of Appeals.

The only prescribed qualification for the office of Lord High Chancellor is that it must be filled by a Protestant.

Sir Kenneth Muir-Mackenzie, who is accompanying Viscount Haldane to America, also has many claims to distinction. As Clerk of the Crown he issues writs for election upon the warrant of the Lord Chancellor, delivers to Commons the list of members returned, certifies the election of Scotch and Irish peers and has duties formerly performed by the Clerk of the Hanaper. He was recantly a member of the commission inquiring into patronage conditions in the civil service.

William J. Schepherd, a rug salesman for a Broadway department store, who is alleged to have defrauded Mrs. Florence May Heggie of 172 West Seventy-second street of $130,000, pleaded not guilty in the Jefferson Market police court yesterday and was held under $2,500 ball for examination next Wednesday morning. He was unable to find a bondsman.

The specific charge against Schepherd was the larceny of $210. Mrs. Heggie's lawyer, Abner G. Werblin of 1427 Madison avenue, told Magistrate Barlow that Schepherd had received from his client fully $130,000 in posing as the sole heir of a rich estate in Germany.

blin told, Schepherd became acquainted with Mrs. Heggie two years ago and told her that he had retained Elihu Root as his lawyer to look after his estate. Mrs. Heggie believed the story and gave him large amounts from time to time. When Elihu Root was questioned by Lawyer Werblin last week concerning Schepherd he said he did not know the man. Schepherd was arrested just as he was about to leave the city.

Schepherd refused to make a statement. Mrs. Heggie also was reticent. She was stopping at the Hotel Albert, Eleventh street and University place, when she met Schepherd.
